WINGS & HOPE CANCER FUND
P.O. BOX 192
PLATTE, SD 57369

If you or someone in your family has been diagnosed with cancer, and you are in need of assistance, and have been unable to obtain needed assistance through insurance, the American Cancer Society or other sources, Wings & Hope Cancer Fund may be able to provide some assistance.

Wings & Hope Cancer Fund is a non-profit organization developed for Platte and the surrounding area. The money available has been raised by local sponsors and individuals, memorials, the Wings & Hope Walk, and individuals whose intent is to have their donations used to meet local needs and provide funds for the disbursement organization. The purpose of the disbursement organization is to recognize needs and disperse available funds. Assistance will be offered without regard to national origin, race, color, religion, sex, marital status or age.

Simply fill out the enclosed application and mail to the above address.
For more information contact Darlene Tappe 337-3055 or Barb Travis 337-3764.
